

Seventh General Body Meeting

Date: February 10th, 2009

Time: 6:15 pm

- Agenda
 - Presidential Elections
 - Ahmed Jorge spoke on his qualifications for President
 - As he was running unopposed, Ahmed was unanimously selected President of UF AIAA for the 2009-2010 school year.
 - Space Florida Undergraduate Academy Presentation (Ty Morton, Eduardo Villalba)
 - March 9th – 16th
 - Several activities:
 - Built/test weather balloon payload
 - Build obstacle-avoidance autonomous robots
 - On-site education visits to key installations at Kennedy Space Center
 - Many more
 - Completely free
 - Great networking opportunities throughout
 - Need to apply ASAP – <http://www.spaceflorida.gov/undergrad.php>
 - Ty and Eduardo designed weather balloons
 - Designed for altitude of 100k feet plus
 - Goal was to capture curvature of the Earth
 - Student Government Presentations
 - Orange and Blue Party (Joanna Sanford)
 - Voting is on February 24/25th
 - Open 8am-8pm, at NEB and Weimer
 - Design Teams
 - FUNSat (Eduardo Villalba)
 - University competition in satellite design
 - Need help in all areas
 - Hybrid Rocket Team (Marc Pelletier)
 - Finally ordered parts, waiting on orders
 - Will start assembly and testing upon part arrival
 - Launch date is April 11th
 - Design-Build-Fly (Brandon Sell)
 - General Body meeting immediately after AIAA General Body meeting
 - Finishing construction of prototype and continuing testing
 - Continuing work on design report
 - Small Satellite Design Club (Dante Buckley)
 - Won FUNSat last year, presenting model soon
 - Tentative launch date is October 1st
 - Engineering model is in the lab
 - Next meeting is in 3 weeks - Tuesday 3/3