

First General Body Meeting

Date: September 9th, 2008

Time: 6:15 pm

- Javier opened the meeting with brief discussion of the aspects and opportunities available in AIAA this year.
- The meeting continued with brief introductions of all of the officers, and individual officer presentations:
 - Miguel gave a brief speech about upcoming opportunities for graduate/undergraduate mentoring programs.
 - Ashley gave a short presentation about community service ideas and opportunities.
 - Eduardo discussed intramural sports during spring semester as well as the College of Engineering football block
 - Each design team lead gave a short presentation about their projects:
 - Brandon gave a brief talk covering the process and benefits of the Design Build-Fly team.
 - Eric gave a brief presentation covering the Hybrid Rocket Team.
 - Brian Jackson gave a short talk about the Small Satellite Design Club.
- Jeff Wright, a representative from Boeing, talked about career fair and his internship experience with Boeing.
- Andrew MacDonald and Tony Licari gave a presentation about the NASA Microgravity experiment.
 - Email: ufmicrogravity@ufl.edu; contact by September 13, 2008 if interested
 - Meeting on Wednesday, September 14, 2008
- Rafael talked about the new UF Aviator's Club.
- Javier discussed national membership in AIAA.
- Javier closed the meeting by announcing the next General Body meeting.